CONDOMINIUM RULES 1/8

Rules Document Effective September 12, 2023

What are Condominium Rules?

Rules are used to help owners get along with one another. Rules are required to be consistent with the Condominium Act, 1998 (the “Condo Act”) and the condo corporation’s declaration and by-laws. Rules are also required to be reasonable and meet the criteria of section 58 of the Condo Act. This means rules must serve the purpose of either:

- Promoting the safety, security or welfare of the owners, property, and assets of the condo corporation; or
- Preventing unreasonable interference with the use and enjoyment of the owners’ properties, the common elements, or the assets of the condo corporation.

Rules can be used to regulate the use of the common elements or guide the behaviour of owners. For example, rules can:

- Set out rules and expectations for the use of the common elements and/or assets of the condominium corporation
- Restrict the use of common elements by short term tenants.
- Regulate parking (e.g., designating parking area at boat launch for vehicles but not trailers).

How can Condominium Rules be changed?

Rules can be passed, amended, or repealed by the condo board of directors (the “condo board”) but require consent from the owners.

First, a new rule, amendment to a rule or repeal to an existing rule will be approved by the board of directors at a board meeting. The condo board must then provide a notice to the owners with the following information:

- A copy of the new rule or amended or repealed rule;
- The date the board proposes the rule will become effective;
- A statement that the owners have the right to requisition a meeting about the rule, and that the rule will become effective 30 days after the notice is given unless a meeting is requisitioned; and
- A copy of section 46 and section 58 of the Condo Act.

This means owners who do not like the rule can act to change it or stop it from becoming effective by requisitioning an owners’ meeting. A requisition must be signed by the owners of at least 15 per cent of the voting units in the condominium corporation (6 voting units out of the possible 35 voting units). If a meeting is not requisitioned within the 30 days from when the notice is given, the rule will become effective. If a meeting is requisitioned, the condo board must call and hold a meeting within 35 days. In this case the rule will become effective unless the owners of a majority of the voting units participating in the meeting vote against it.

Owners do not need board action or consent to requisition a meeting for the purpose of amending or repealing a rule. According to section 58 (5) of the Condo Act, the owners may amend or repeal a rule at a meeting called for this purpose (e.g., an owner requisitioned meeting). During the meeting, support from the owners of a majority of the voting units participating in the meeting (i.e., requires an affirmative vote of more than 50% of the voting units present at the meeting not 50% of all of the 35 voting units) is necessary for the change to the rule to take place.

| General | |
| 1 | Condo owners and associate members including their family members and visitors, are responsible for the activities, behaviour and any damage caused by themselves, their families and/or their visitors. Any person or persons using the condominium assets and common element areas will indemnify and save harmless the Condo Corp and its Board of Directors against all claims, losses, damages, judgements, costs, expenses, actions and other proceedings made, sustained, brought, prosecuted, or threatened to be brought or prosecuted that based upon, occasioned by or attributed to any bodily injury to or death of a person or damage to or loss of property caused by any negligent act or omission on the part of the Condo Corp and/or its Board of Directors or anyone for whom they are responsible at law, in relation to any matters arising out of this Agreement. |
| 2 | No garbage is to be left on the common elements (boat launch area and trails) at any time, including pet waste. |
| 3 | The creation or continuance of noise or nuisance must not disturb the comfort or quiet enjoyment of neighbouring properties and/or common elements by other owners and associate members, including their families and visitors. Noise must be kept to a minimum, no trespassing on private property, no littering, and no willful damage to common lands (trails, dock, launch, etc) |
| 4 | No hunting on condo elements is permitted without the approval of the president and condo board. Approval will be granted in situations where threats to safety exist (e.g., sick or rabid animals, coyote packs) or there are risks of damage to property (e.g., beavers damming road culverts). |

| 6 | No cutting of trees on common elements without approval of the president and condo board. |
| 7 | Campfires may not be set on the common elements including the boat launch. |

| Boat Launch & Dock Area | |
|------------------------------------|--|

| 2 | The boat launch gate lock combination must be kept confidential to ensure the area is not accessible to individuals outside our community. |
| 3 | Access gate must be locked at all times. The lock tumblers must be rolled when closing the padlock to ensure it is locked and to safeguard the lock combination. |
| 4 | The swim ladder is to remain on the dock (out of the water) when not in use to prevent zebra mussels. |
| 5 | The boat launch area is not supervised. No lifeguard is on duty. Swimming and boating in the area are strictly at the risk of the user. |
| 6 | The boat launch area is a multi-use space (boat launching, boat mooring, swimming, fishing, picnicking, etc.). The area is to be shared by the owners and associate members including their families and visitors. Everyone must be aware and considerate of others using the area. Remarks/Directions

Public Rmks: Located in one of eastern Ontario's premier waterfront communities and situated between Bobs Lake and Crow Lake, sits this 9-acre lot that is ready for your designs and dream home. This property has a circular gravel lane in place as well as monthly income from a MICROFIT Solar Panel Installation. There is also an active hydro post with an outlet in place for electricity. There is an outhouse on site to use if you are just looking for a camping property before you build your home. Oak Bluffs Road is a year-round paved road, and the lot is located off of a cul-de-sac at the west end of the community. The towering trees on this lot frame many possible building sites and the rugged, rocky terrain offers a beautiful place to hike and explore. There are also many hiking trails throughout the common lands of this development, along with Crown Land directly to the west and access to a gated paved boat launch area, docking and maybe a quick swim. Bobs Lake is one of the largest lakes in the area stretching about 19 km to the south with a channel connecting to Crow Lake. This is the perfect location for the outdoors person with boating, fishing, hiking, x-country skiing and snowmobiling. Don't miss this spectacular piece of Canadian Shield!
