Set at the base of Foley Mountain with southerly views over Westport Pond, this classic four-bedroom home blends waterfront living with true small-town convenience. The main floor offers a bright living room, family room, and eat-in kitchen with a walkout to the deck, plus a primary suite with its own ensuite. Upstairs, two more bedrooms and a full bath round out the space.

Step outside to a gently sloping lot down to the water, framed by mature trees, then walk into the Village of Westport in minutes for restaurants, shops, and everyday essentials.
