Client Remks: Discover the potential of this charming 3-season waterfront cottage on beautiful Buck Lake. Nestled on a quiet bay with desirable west-facing exposure, this elevated property offers stunning sunset views and the opportunity to create your ideal lakeside retreat. The cottage features 3 bedrooms, a 3-piece bathroom, and a cozy woodstove, providing a comfortable space to enjoy spring, summer, and fall. The cottage is equipped with a 100-amp fuse panel, a septic system and draws its water from the lake. The cottage is being sold as is and needs renovations, making it an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to restore, update, or reimagine a classic Canadian cottage. From the elevated setting, a staircase leads down to the natural shoreline, offering easy access to swimming, boating, fishing, and relaxing by the water. Buck Lake is a deep, clear Canadian Shield lake renowned for its rugged granite shoreline and exceptional recreational opportunities. Much of the lake's shoreline is protected by Frontenac Provincial Park, preserving its natural beauty, abundant wildlife, and unspoiled character. Anglers will appreciate excellent fishing for lake trout, bass, and northern pike, while boaters, paddlers, and nature lovers can enjoy exploring the lake's scenic shoreline, quiet bays, and surrounding wilderness. Whether you're looking for a rewarding renovation project or the perfect location to build lasting family memories, this waterfront property offers incredible potential in a peaceful and highly desirable setting.
Inclusions: All contents in as is condition, Lawn mower (as is), Paddle boat (as is)
